

Job Title: Part-time Child Development Officer

Department: Early Years

Location: East Kilbride

Due to the increased number of spaces filled within our nursery, we are now opening a new position within our baby room. This part-time position (24 hours per week, Wed – Fri each week) is based on our Early Years' Service in East Kilbride. You will work alongside a great team and report to our Early Years Management team.

About Us:

Indigo at the Village is in the Village of East Kilbride; we cater for children from 6 weeks through to 5 years old. Our passion is to deliver quality childcare to all children at our nursery. Our vision is to provide a unique, high-quality education, ensuring that children are at the heart of everything that we do.

The Indigo Group is a three-time award-winning and highly-commended childcare organisation that, for over 30 years, has made it our mission to empower families to overcome poverty and its challenges by providing innovative, family-informed learning and childcare solutions from birth to 16 years. We are passionate and care for children, young people and their families, keeping them at the heart of our practice. Everything we do is values-led, it drives us and our behaviours and, in turn, creates and embeds the culture we want to see from everyone who is part of Indigo. We adopt a 'Leadership at Every Level', and those with a passion to succeed will have full support and the opportunity to participate in working out with their immediate area if they so desire.

Our values are:

Family Centred- Children, young people and their families will be at the heart of every decision we make. Inspiring- Our children, young people if....

Fun- Our team's happiness is infectious and will create a welcoming and fun experience for every Indigo stakeholder.

Nurturing- We will nurture every child, family, team member and community to help them achieve their fullest potential

Innovative- We will always ask our families and communities what they want and use our professional expertise to create transformational solutions

Fun- our team's happiness is infectious and will create a welcoming and fun experience for every Indigo stakeholder.

Nurturing- we will nurture every child, family, team member and community to help them achieve their fullest potential.

What you will be doing:

As our Child Development Officer, you will be a role model in everything that you do, from promoting our Indigo brand and values to ensuring that everything you do in your role and for Indigo is delivered to the highest standard- the outstanding quality of service for our children, young people, families and our colleagues, ensuring that children and families are the heart of your decision making.

Key Accountabilities- you will:

- Provide a high-quality, caring, safe and stimulating learning environment that enables children to develop at their own pace
- Plan, observed, assessed, tracked and delivered stimulating, exciting and balanced programmes to support the children's learning through our Early Years curriculum ensuring that our needs and those of the children and their families are met
- Ensure that all sessions are safe, fun and inclusive and liaise with external agencies to support children's wellbeing and development
- Contribute to quality improvement and have an understanding of quality assurance systems that we use in Early Years.
- Follow and adhere to all policies and regulatory body governance to ensure that it meets the Health & Social Care Standards and SSSC.

Parent & CYP Engagement involves:

- Being an ambassador of Indigo when engaging with and supporting parents, children and young people delivering outstanding customer service at all times- from admissions, welcomes and throughout their time with us
- Facilitating feedback from parents and children and engaging in family communication and learning platforms alongside supporting and developing parental engagement to involve parents/carers in their children's learning.

Administration responsibilities include:

- Ensuring that all children's records and information remain securely stored, and information is up to date
- Contributing to policymaking and the implementation of our policies and procedures
- Completing regular and all necessary tasks as defined by our Lead Child Development Officer

Training- Learning, training and development are important to us, therefore, to support your learning and development, you will:

- Be required to attend regular training to ensure that all mandatory requirements are met
- Identify any personal and service training that you require for you and your continued professional development (CPD), highlighting and discussing these with your Lead CDO throughout the year

Health & Safety- You will be asked to follow and adhere to all legal responsibilities and duties as set out under the Children Act (Scotland) 2014 and the Health & Safety at Work Act. You will also ensure you take care of your safety, and that of your colleagues, children and young people and carry out any risk assessments of the environment or planned activities where required.

Knowledge, Skills and Experience- We would like you to have the following:

An SVQ Level 3 Social Services- Children & Young People or equivalent is desirable. Should you not have this, though have a passion for working in childcare and learning, we will always be on the lookout for people to join us and we help you train, learn and achieve the necessary experience and qualifications.

- Prove ability to deliver consistently high levels of customer service
- A willingness to learn and continually challenge yourself
- Excellent communication skills (verbal and written) with the ability to prepare information for internal and external requirements and decision-making.
- Strong IT skills, particularly MS Office with good attention to detail
- Highly organised and someone who can work independently and equally encourage others to do so
- Ability to work well in a team and show willingness to assume additional or new responsibilities readily

What you will get in return from us:

A salary of £26,957 per annum (pro rata) along with our Indigo benefits of:

- 37 fully paid annual leave days per annum (based on a full-time role)
- Company pension
- Company sick pay
- Enhanced maternity pay
- Access to health insurance
- Childcare Discounts
- Christmas savings club
- Team Events
- Access to family support if required
- Indigo branded clothing
- Access to all mandatory, accredited and indigo-specific training courses for free

If you are interested, we would love to hear from you. Apply today via our application form!